Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Suzuki (6,144,192).

Suzuki discloses a camera having an attachable lens including a booster circuit. The claimed “communication unit” is met by the output terminals and corresponding circuitry of the camera body microcomputer. The claimed “camera controller” is met by the combination of the in-focus judging device (not shown see column 4, lines 3-13) and the microcomputer. The “camera controller also transmits a booster drive command for driving the booster circuit to the lens controller” in Suzuki by way of switch means 15, see column 3, lines 40-61 and column 4, lines 20-29.

Regarding claim 4, the claimed “operation member” is met by the release button of Suzuki, see column 3, lines 40-61.

The functional language of the claims is met by the operation of Suzuki.
